Remarks

A modern, elevated, and inviting 2025 masterpiece on fabulous Longboat Key! What could be better? Built to the utmost of standards by the owners vision for his own family, (he is a also builder), this home has it all. Let's start with the heavy custom front door surrounded by gorgeous large scale tiles in colors of the sea, that opens to the expansive great room, dining area and huge chefs kitchen. The kitchen is an entertainers dream, with a 5 burner gas range, pot filler, double ovens, built-in microwave and full size side by side refrigerator/freezer. A large center island provides ample storage and incredible work space, and of course there is a walk-in pantry and a separate area for a coffee and a wine fridge. Off of the kitchen and living/dining area is a screened in porch with a full outdoor kitchen for outdoor dining as well as an open porch with steps to the lush green grass. The primary suite is on this level, and a half bath and a gorgeous ensuite. The ensuite features an abundance of light with double sinks, a large double shower and a soaking tub. When you head up the staircase to the 2nd level, you will certainly notice the continuance of the incredible finishes and modern original light fixtures! Here you find a large landing with sliders to the enticing outdoor deck. perfect for your morning
